

Scholarship Resources for CED Undergraduates

See the UCB Financial Aid Office (<http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/>) for standard financial aid resources and information.

CAMPUS-WIDE SCHOLARSHIPS (go to The Scholarship Connection scholarships.berkeley.edu for more info):

Beinecke Scholarship: Spring deadline
Boren Scholarship: Fall deadline
Churchill Scholarship: Fall deadline
Cooke Scholarship: Spring deadline
Global Leaders Program: Fall deadline
Goldwater Scholarship: Fall deadline
KAUST Discovery Scholarship: Spring deadline
Marshall Scholarship: Summer deadline
Merage Fellowship for the American Dream: Fall deadline
Mitchell Scholarship: Summer deadline
Rhodes Scholarship: Summer deadline
Strauss Scholarship: Spring deadline
Truman Scholarship: Fall deadline
Udall Scholarship: Spring deadline

ADDITIONAL CAMPUS-WIDE PROGRAMS

Big Ideas@Berkeley Contest. provides funding, support, and encouragement to undergraduate and graduate students who have innovative ideas to improve their world. All students are provided with resources to help them turn their ideas into action – information sessions, proposal writing workshops, judging feedback, student advising, professional mentoring – and winners receive up to $20,000 to get them started. <http://bigideas.berkeley.edu/>

Center for Race and Gender grants. The Center for Race and Gender (CRG) at the University of California Berkeley, awards grants of $100 to $1,000 to fund undergraduates for research or creative projects that address issues of race and gender. <http://crg.berkeley.edu/content/undergraduate-grants-program>

The Haas Scholars Program. The Robert & Colleen Haas Scholars Program funds financial aid eligible, academically talented undergraduates to engage in a sustained research, field-study or creative project in the summer before and during their senior year at Berkeley. Each year, twenty Haas Scholars are selected from all disciplines and departments across the University on the basis of the merit and originality of their project proposals. http://research.berkeley.edu/haas_scholars/

Institute of International Studies research grants. UCB's IIS supports undergraduate research and scholarship by seeking to award a series of merit scholarships of up to $2000 each, which will encourage Berkeley students to perform innovative, in-depth research on a topic of their choosing. Eligibility: UC Berkeley Junior or Senior with a minimum of 3.5 GPA who has completed at least one semester of study in residence at Berkeley. All majors are eligible and encouraged to apply. <http://iis.berkeley.edu/Funding/SupportforUndergraduates>

Ronald E. McNair Scholars Program. The McNair Scholars Program prepares selected UC Berkeley undergraduates for graduate study at the doctoral level. Twenty to thirty McNair Scholars are selected each year to participate in both academic and summer activities. The McNair Scholars Program aims to increase numbers of groups underrepresented in doctoral programs. Students must meet the following criteria: Completion of at least 60 units; 3.0 minimum cumulative UC Berkeley GPA; US Citizenship or permanent US Residency; qualify as either a first-generation college student who also has an income level established by the US Department of Education; or a member of a group that is underrepresented in graduate education. Benefits: Close relationship with a faculty mentor; $2,800 stipend for summer research; paper published in the Berkeley McNair Journal; research findings presented at the Annual California McNair Scholars Symposium; fully funded GRE Prep Course; assistance to ensure admission to graduate programs of choice; fee waivers from participating institutions graduate applications; strengthening of academic skills. <http://aad.berkeley.edu/mcnair.shtml>

Stronach Baccalaureate Prize. The Judith Lee Stronach Baccalaureate Prize supports intellectual and creative pursuits that heighten awareness of issues of social consciousness and the public good. The award gives bright, ambitious students the opportunity to extend and reflect upon their undergraduate work at Berkeley by undertaking a special project after their graduation. Eligibility: The Prize is open to Berkeley graduates who are awarded an undergraduate degree in the Fall of the year before or the Spring or Summer of the year in which the Prize is awarded in any area of study. Proposals for humanistic research or social service projects involving the arts, humanities and social or natural sciences are welcome. The Prize cannot be used to support graduate study or any credit-granting courses. <http://research.berkeley.edu/stronach/>

Student Opportunity Funds (SOF). ProvideS support for both co-curricular and academic activities, planned by and for Cal students. Supports programs that foster a greater sense of campus community and that are conducive to free intellectual exchange. Encourages more interaction and educational experiences outside of the classroom, such as visiting speakers, forums on topics of general interest, and special campus panel discussions. <https://students.berkeley.edu/myberkeley/misc/opfund.asp?todo=home>

UC Leads. Two-year program designed to identify educationally or economically disadvantaged UC undergraduates in mathematics, engineering, or science who show promise of succeeding in doctoral degree programs. The program provides students with educational experiences that prepare them to assume positions of leadership in industry, government, public service, and academia. <http://research.berkeley.edu/otheropps/UCLeads/UCLeads.html>

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR TRANSFER AND RE-ENTRY STUDENTS

The Beverly Mullins Memorial Scholarship. Created to give financial assistance to leaders who are single Re-entry student/parents. Up to $5,000 will be distributed each year to a selected student has been admitted to UCB. <http://trsp.berkeley.edu/#cash>

The Celia J. Peeler Award. Presented annually to a community college student who enrolls at UC Berkeley following participation in the Starting Point Mentorship Program. This award is not merit or need based. Our goal is to reward a student with a personal vision of assistance to others and to help him or her achieve that vision. <http://trsp.berkeley.edu/#cash>

The Judith Stronach Prizes in Poetry and Prose. Established by Judith Lee Stronach in 1993 for re-entry students (undergraduate students who have a gap of five years or more between high school and college and graduate students who have a gap of five years or more between undergraduate and graduate studies). The prizes consist of two awards in the amount of $2,000 each for poetry (five poems) and prose (unpublished, any length). These prizes are co-administered by the English Department and TRSP. <http://trsp.berkeley.edu/#cash>

Miller Scholars Program. The George A. Miller Scholars Program is designed to provide ten first-generation and low-income community college transfer students with a two-year scholarship and a research/community service stipend. Scholars are selected based upon number of criteria, including demonstrated academic excellence, leadership potential, and a commitment to community service. During the academic year, George A Miller Scholars receive training and support for the design of a faculty-mentor summer project involving either original or community service project. <http://aad.berkeley.edu/miller.shtml>

The Osher Reentry Scholarship Program. Funds ten Osher Reentry Scholars with awards of $2,000 for the academic year. Applicants must meet the following criteria: Must be an undergraduate re-entry student at UC Berkeley who has experienced a considerable gap in the pursuit of his or her education and who can look forward to a significant number of years of workforce participation; Must have completed at least one regular term (Fall or Spring) at UC Berkeley; Must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 from all colleges attended. All applicants must have filed a FAFSA and be eligible to receive financial aid. <http://trsp.berkeley.edu/#cash>

COLLEGE OF ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN

Martin Del Campo / Bob Esparza / Antonia Escobar Scholarship Awards. These awards, sponsored by CASA Alumni, are given in memory of individuals who through their own special character and beliefs provided unselfish support and encouragement to students enrolled from socially economic challenged communities at the College of Environmental Design (CED). Graduate and undergraduate students in any CED major/program who consider themselves to be from a social and economically challenged community are eligible to apply. <http://casa-ucberkeley.org/>

Please visit the CED Prizes & Awards Calendar for a list of all current prizes & awards, detailed application information, and deadlines: <http://www.ced.berkeley.edu/events/calendar/prizes>

If you have questions about specific awards, please contact: CED Prizes & Awards, cedprizes@berkeley.edu

Bakewell/Brown and Bakewell/ Weihe Prize ($1,500 total available). The prize is offered for the best drawings of decorative detail or ornament in architecture. Entries are evaluated on: excellence of composition, aesthetic expression, technical skill and choice of subject matter.

Gadsby-Trudgett Scholarship (2-7 awards of $2,000-$5,000). The Gadsby-Trudgett scholarship is given by the Office of the Dean to students who show evidence of broad interest in environmental design.

Judith Lee Stronach Undergraduate Travel Scholarships. Established through a gift by Raymond Lifchez in memory of Judith Lee Stronach, this summer travel fellowship is available to undergraduate students in the College of Environmental Design for travel as "service-learning opportunities." Applications, due in the spring semester, are expected to include a proposal for hands-on work in a community along with an itinerary and budget. The fellowship is administered by the JLS Fellowship committee, which has faculty representatives from the various CED departments.
http://www.ced.berkeley.edu/judith_lee_stronach_travel_scholarships/

Matthew Lyon Prize in Photography ($1,000 total available). The Matthew M. Lyon Prize in Photography honors exceptional undergraduate work in photography, including but not limited to fine art photography and documentary work. Eligible applicants are undergraduate students in any major at UC Berkeley. <http://berkeley.edu/lyon/>

National Associate of Minority Architects (NOMA) travel grants. The Dean of CED awards 4-6 travel grants to CED students to attend the annual conference. http://www.noma.net/EventsPrograms/events_2012conference.aspx NOMA's mission is to champion diversity within the design professions by promoting the excellence, community engagement, and professional development of its members. Conference activities such as panels, workshops, and receptions will provide students with educational, networking and potential career opportunities. Contact Yeri Caesar-Kaptoech (ycaesark@berkeley.edu) with questions.

Ong&Ong Internship. For undergraduate and graduate students graduating from CED. The program will provide one year of carefully planned professional practice at the Ong&Ong consulting firm in Singapore. The recipient will receive airfare, housing, and a monthly stipend adequate to cover living expenses. The internship is a fixed-term position, and does not offer benefits. All undergraduates receiving a BA in Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Environmental Planning, or Urban Studies, or graduates receiving an M.Arch, MLA, or MCP are eligible.

ARCHITECTURE majors can apply for the following:

Undergraduate Scholarships (~$40,000).

Award decisions for most scholarships are based on GPA with preference given to those with financial need. Preference is also given to those who will be juniors or seniors in the fall semester in which the scholarship is awarded, and those with a GPA of 3.3 or greater.

- Class of '24 Scholarship
- Camille J. Ehrenfels Scholarship
- Lee F. Fallman Scholarship
- Fong & Chan Architects Scholarship
- Kenneth Kurtzman Memorial Scholarship
- Rosanna E. Luis Scholarship
- Walter Moody Scholarship
- Kenneth Foster Strong Memorial Scholarship
- Willard Franke Student Support Fund

Competitions Open to Architecture Undergraduates:

Peerless Lighting Prize in Architecture (1-2 awards, $1,500 total). Architecture undergraduates and M.Arch students enrolled full-time at least one semester of the current year are eligible for this prize. The Peerless Lighting Prize is for the best student project designed in an architecture studio course at Berkeley.

Sandy Hirshen Prize (1-2 awards, $1000 total). The Sandy Hirshen prize is offered annually to an architecture undergraduate or graduate student whose direction is linked to socially responsible architecture.

Michael Ho Memorial Travel Scholarship (1-2 awards, $1,500 total). To honor Michael Ho's legacy and love of learning, architecture, and travel, the income from the Michael Ho Endowed Scholarship Fund awards an annual travel scholarship to an undergraduate student in their junior year majoring in architecture at the College of Environmental Design. The award is primarily based on financial need and secondarily on merit.

Nominative Awards (for undergraduates in Architecture):

AIA SF Chapter – Howard Friedman Scholarship (1 award of $1,000). The Howard A. Friedman Scholarship, sponsored by the AIA San Francisco Chapter, is awarded each year to a junior undergraduate in recognition of scholastic achievement, and commitment to the advancement of procedures and methods of architectural practice. The recipient is nominated by members of the architecture faculty, and is announced at the Architecture Prizes & Awards Ceremony at the end of the academic year.

Alpha Rho Chi Medal. The Alpha Rho Chi Medal was established in 1931 by the Grand Council of Alpha Rho Chi, the National Professional Fraternity for Architecture and the Allied Arts, to honor a graduating senior who has shown an affinity for leadership, performed willing service for the department, and gives promise of real professional merit through his or her attitude and personality. The recipient is nominated by the architecture faculty, and is announced at the Architecture Prizes & Awards Ceremony at the end of the academic year.

Gerson Memorial Prize (1 award of $1,800). The Gerson Memorial Prize was established in 1968 by Hans U. Gerson to recognize a graduating student for distinction in architectural design. The prize is given in memory of several members of the Gerson family who were involved in the field of architecture. The Gerson Memorial Prize recognizes one graduating M.Arch or B.A. Architecture student for overall design excellence as exhibited through their coursework. Students are nominated for this prize by members of the Architecture faculty. The recipient is announced at the Architecture Prizes & Awards ceremony at the end of the academic year.

URBAN STUDIES offers the following undergraduate prizes & awards:

Chung Leadership Prize (1 award of $1,000). Established by the Chung family, this prize is given each year to an Urban Studies sophomore or junior in order to support a public service project or internship that he or she will undertake during the summer. Upon completion of the public service, the recipient is expected to write a professional report about the experience and present it in a public forum. The prize is administered by the Urban Studies committee.

Eisner Prize in City & Regional Planning (1 to 2 award, $2,000 total). The Eisner Prizes in the Creative Arts are the most distinguished awards in five departments of UC Berkeley: English, Music, Art, Dramatic Art, and Environmental Design. The award recognizes outstanding creative achievement in urban design. The award is open to all graduate students in the Master of City Planning Program and undergraduate Urban Studies majors.

Yuen Endowed Scholarship (1 award of $500). To honor Jason Yuen's legacy as a city planner, the Jason Yuen Endowed Scholarship Fund was established to help defray the cost of tuition for a student in the CED Urban Studies program. Undergraduate students in their junior or senior year will be given first priority to receive the award. The award will be based on merit, financial need, and a statement of purpose.

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE majors can apply for the following:

Thomas Church Award. Outstanding creative achievement in design based on a specific design competition. First, Second and Third Prizes have a cash award, typically in the range of $1000 to $2000. A jury comprised of professionals and faculty members selects recipients.

San Francisco Garden Competition. This is a design competition funded annually by the San Francisco Garden Club and is open to both undergraduate and graduate students. Usually, the garden belongs to one of the Garden Club members. Typically, there is a first and second prize. Total prize amount is $2000 per year. A jury of San Francisco Garden Club members selects recipients. Information will be available in early October and the competition deadline will be late November or early December.

Geraldine Knight Scott Traveling Fellowship. This award was set up by Geraldine Knight Scott in order to provide funds for significant travel after graduation. Students must submit detailed travel objectives in an essay form, a budget and a portfolio of design or other academic work. This award is for undergraduate and graduate students in their final year. Awards are typically in the range of $7500 - $10,000. The recipients are selected by the Scott Traveling Fellowship Committee that is comprised of two LAEP faculty members, one planning faculty member and one alumni.

H. Leland Vaughan Award. This award is given for student leadership and participation in departmental activities. Students must submit an essay, which describes their participation in departmental activities, a design project and have a minimum 3.3 GPA in Landscape Architecture courses. Award amount is approximately $1000. Recipients are selected by the Prizes and Awards Committee.

Christopher Hoey Memorial Undergraduate Endowment. An $800 nominative scholarship grant based on demonstrated academic promise awarded to an undergraduate student in Landscape Architecture & Environmental Planning in their junior year continuing into their senior year.

Eisner Prize in Landscape Architecture (1 award of $2,000). This is an annual award for outstanding creative achievement. Students submit class projects to the Departmental Prizes and Awards Committee who select the winner. Projects may include work from a design or environmental planning studio as well as papers on projects from other classes. Information is available in early February and completion deadline is in early March.

ADDITIONAL ON-CAMPUS RESOURCES

ASUC Grants. The Associated Students of the University of California (ASUC) manages a number of funds that support the endeavors of individual students and groups on campus. Grant programs include the Academic Opportunity Fund, the ASUC Intellectual Community Fund, the ASUC Educational Enhancement Fund, the ASUC Multicultural Fund, the ASUC Public Service Fund, and the ASUC Ethnic Studies Fifth Account Grant. For more information on individual funds, and for application instructions, please visit: <http://www.asuc.org/index.php/student-organization-resources/funding/grants>

Berkeley Undergraduate Dream Act Scholarship. Funding for AB540 students at Cal. Application and more information http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/undergraduates/types_dream.htm.

Cal Alumni Pride Leadership Scholarship. Recognizes students who have demonstrated leadership and community involvement in the LGBT community. All undergrad students, regardless of gender identity or orientation, are encouraged to apply if they meet the eligibility criteria. Scholarships are awarded to entering or continuing undergraduate students based on academic achievement and leadership criteria. Please direct any questions to scholarship@calalumnipride.org or visit online at www.calalumnipride.org

Campus Life & Leadership Scholarship Listings. <http://students.berkeley.edu:8151/osl/calcorps.asp?id=1105>

California Alumni Association. The Alumni Scholarships Office administers several merit-based scholarships for enrolled Berkeley undergraduates. <http://alumni.berkeley.edu/>

Career Center. 2111 Bancroft Way. Career Center staff have compiled a list of public service-related fellowship opportunities for recent graduates and graduate students. <https://career.berkeley.edu/>

Cal Corps Public Service Center. 505 Eshleman Hall. Works with the local community to engage students in a variety of service activities such as tutoring youth, helping the homeless, providing companionship to the elderly, and preserving the environment. The Center's staff has also compiled a binder of public service-related scholarships. <http://publicservice.berkeley.edu/>

Eisner Prize for Film and Video. <http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/undergraduates/prizefilm.htm>

Eisner Prize for Photo-Imaging. <http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/undergraduates/prizephotogr.htm>

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships. Provides funding to encourage the study of critical and less commonly taught foreign languages in combination with area studies, international studies or international aspects of professional studies. Promotes training of students who intend to make their careers in college or university teaching, government service, or other employment where knowledge of foreign languages and cultures is essential. At UC Berkeley, funding for FLAS Fellowships is provided by seven Title VI National Resource Centers representing various world areas, including: Africa, East Asia, Eastern Europe/Russia/Eurasia, Latin America, Middle East, South Asia, and Southeast Asia. For further information, contact Gina Farales by phone (510-642-7739) or by email (gfarales@berkeley.edu). Undergraduates are eligible to apply. http://www.grad.berkeley.edu/financial/pdf/flas_academic_year_announcement.pdf
http://www.grad.berkeley.edu/financial/pdf/flas_summer_announcement.pdf

Global Poverty & Practice Minor Fellowship. Available only to declared minors. Applications for competitive Global Poverty and Practice Fellowships are available for GPP Minor students to support their international practice opportunities. Proposals are evaluated on the proposed practice experience and the financial need of the student. <http://blumcenter.berkeley.edu/global-poverty-education/fellowships-funding>

Graduate Division Fellowships Office. 318 Sproul Hall. The Fellowships Office has information on scholarships and fellowships for graduate study at any institution. In 318 Sproul, students can browse a binder of hundreds of postings. Graduating seniors may apply for many externally-funded awards, such as the Fulbright Grants for Graduate Study Abroad, Mellon Fellowships in the Humanities, and National Science Foundation Fellowships.

http://grad.berkeley.edu/financial/fellowships_office.shtml

Human Rights Center Summer Fellowships. The UCB Human Rights Center awards summer fellowships to UC students to work with human rights organizations in the United States and abroad.

<http://www.law.berkeley.edu/HRCweb/fellowships.html>

Mildred Jordan Sharp Scholarship. Honors the leadership and service of Cal women. Offered by the Torch & Shield Society for junior women who have demonstrated leadership, service, academics, and personal development in pursuit of a specific future goal or career. Successful applicants will be passionate, driven, committed leaders who can articulately discuss the impact of their service thus far and their vision for the future impacts of their work. Awards range from $500 - $2,500 Questions:

mjs.scholarship@gmail.com

Office of Undergraduate Research. 301 Campbell Hall. Students looking for scholarships or fellowships to conduct research should visit the Office of Undergraduate Research website. The site provides funding advice and links to on- and off-campus research opportunities. <http://research.berkeley.edu/index.php>

Student Opportunity Funds (SOF). SOF provides support for activities, co-curricular and academic, planned by and for Cal students. The fund supports programs that foster a greater sense of campus community and that are conducive to free intellectual exchange. The fund also encourages more interaction and educational experiences for students outside of the classroom, such as visiting speakers, forums on topics of general interest, and special campus panel discussions. For more information, please visit:

<https://students.berkeley.edu/myberkeley/misc/opfund.asp?todo=home>

Undergraduate Scholarships, Prizes and Honors Office. 210 Sproul Hall. While Scholarship Connection administers scholarships funded by outside agencies and foundations, the Undergraduate Scholarships office administers UC Berkeley-based scholarships. Students are automatically considered for these awards when they complete their UC Application for Admissions and Scholarships. This office also administers University awards and competitive prizes for creative works, such as poetry, fiction, music composition and film. <http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/home/types.htm>

OFF-CAMPUS RESOURCES

American Planning Association (APA) Scholarships & Fellowships. APA and other affiliated organizations offer varied scholarship and fellowship programs for planning students. Please visit the APA website for more information on available opportunities: <http://www.planning.org/scholarships/>

Architectural Precast Association Scholarships. <http://www.hosteroo.com/~archprec/index.php/education>

Asian Pacific Community Fund - Verizon Scholarship Awards Program. The Asian Pacific Community Fund is a network of 29 community organizations focused on transforming the lives of Asian and Pacific Islanders throughout Los Angeles County. Through a partnership with Verizon, the fund offers $10,000 in scholarships to 2nd year college students. See <http://www.apcf.org/index.php/what-we-do/scholarship-fund> The 2nd cycle of the scholarship program offers 5 - $2,000 awards for 2nd year college students attending a 4-year, accredited college/university in California, Oregon, or Washington, or are a resident of those states. Scholarships are open to students majoring in math, sciences, engineering, or a related field. Deadline for 2nd cycle is in October.

Association of Environmental Professionals (AEP). AEP is a non-profit organization of professionals working to improve their skills as environmental and resource managers. AEP is dedicated to the enhancement, maintenance and protection of the natural and human environment. Each year the AEP San Francisco Bay Area Chapter offers a scholarship to students who are planning to engage in a career in the environmental field. www.sfbayaep.org.

Blum Center for Developing Economies. <http://blumcenter.berkeley.edu/global-poverty-education/fellowships-funding/other-opportunities>

California Architectural Foundation (CAF), Mel Ferris Scholarship. CAF administers the Mel Ferris Scholarship Program, awarded to architectural students at California universities who have demonstrated financial need and exemplary academic and design achievements. The Foundation has awarded more than 93 grants and scholarships (ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 each) since its inception in 1991, to university-level architectural students in California. UC Berkeley is a long-time participant in the Mel Ferris Scholarship Program. CED Prizes & Awards will send out an announcement with application instructions for the current year by late November. Other scholarships are also available: <http://cafsite.org/education/>

California Strawberry Scholarships applications. Scholarships available exclusively for children of strawberry farmworkers. Scholarship awards start at $400 and can be renewed annually. The scholarship amount is based on merit. Funding is available for graduating high school seniors and students already attending college, including advanced degrees (master's or doctorate degrees), or professional certification (teaching credential, technical programs, etc.).
www.californiastrawberries.com/scholarships

Chinese American Construction Association. $1,000 scholarships are given to juniors, seniors and graduate students majoring in construction fields who have good grades and/or are in financial need. Required GPA is 3.0. www.cacpla.org Contact Lucia Tam at 626-221-2888 or Michael Chiu at 626-255-6860 or Winnie Wong at the CACP office M-F 9am-1pm.

Dalai Lama Fellows. Awards highly competitive, yearlong Fellowships with a project grant of up to $10,000 to students at select universities and colleges worldwide. Fellows design and launch ambitious, mentored Compassion-in-Action projects in one or more of the following areas: enhancing understanding and cooperation across peoples and cultures; diminishing violence and promoting peace; helping alleviate poverty through creative initiatives; and, protecting the environment. Over the course of the year, Fellows are immersed in a reflective leadership curriculum, where they explore universal human values including contemplation, compassion, emotional resilience, discernment and courage. <http://dalailamafellows.org/>

DFW International Community Alliance: Guide to Scholarships for New Americans and Minorities.
http://www.dfwinternational.org/resource_center/Scholarship_Guide.pdf

Educators for Fair Consideration (E4FC). Scholarships that don't require social security numbers (for Bay Area immigrant students). <http://www.e4fc.org/studentresources/scholarshiplist.html>

Financial Aid and Scholarships Office, Outside Scholarship Resources.
http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/home/outside_scholarship.htm

Gilman Summer Scholarship for Study Abroad. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational & Cultural Affairs and administered by the Institute of International Education (IIE). Applicant must be a U.S. citizen, an undergraduate student at a 2 or 4 year institution in the United States, and must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of application or during the term of study abroad. Applicant must be applying to a study abroad program that spends at least 4 weeks in one country and is eligible for credit at the home institution. The study abroad program can take place in any country that is not on the U.S. Department of State's Travel Warning List or Cuba. The Gilman Program strongly encourages applications from Students from diverse backgrounds, those going to non-traditional study abroad destinations, students with disabilities, and students in fields of study underrepresented in study abroad. There are a limited number of summer scholarships. Average award offered: $3,000. Available to all majors. www.iie.org/gilman

Glass Association of North America (GANA). Freshman through first semester senior in the fields of Architecture, Construction Management, or Engineering. 2.5 GPA. www.glasswebsite.com www.glasseducation.com Minimum of five $1000 scholarships per year.

Hart Howerton Fellowship Program. Open to undergraduate and graduate students in architecture, planning and landscape architecture during the summer before their final year of school. The Hart Howerton Fellowship provides a select group of students a defined summer internship within design practices, combined with three weeks of self-directed travel.
http://www.harthowerton.com/Community_Fellowship.html

National Association of Women in Construction. Awards over $25,000 to worthy recipients in construction-related programs. Award amounts range from $500 to $2,500. <http://www.nawic.org/nawic/NFSF.asp?SnID=635538171>

National Housing Endowment. Numerous scholarships available:
<http://www.nationalhousingendowment.com/Scholarships.htm>

Northern California Chapter of the Conference of Minority Transportation Officials (COMTO). Scholarship awards of $1,000 $3,000 each. Must be a U.S. citizen currently enrolled full-time in an undergraduate program at an accredited college or university and must be a member of a racial minority group (African American, Asian American, Hispanic American, Native American or Pacific Islander). Applicants must be majoring in fields that would support their career interest in the transportation, such as engineering, urban planning, economic, finance, communications, etc. Must be a Sophomore level student or above (with a declared academic major). Contact Raymond Odunlami, at comto.norcal.treasurer@gmail.com.

San Francisco Construction Specifications Institute Foundation. $3,000.00 and $2,000.00 scholarships. Eligible students are those with a declared major of Architecture, Architectural Engineering, Construction Management, Environmental Design, or Landscape Architecture. <http://www.csisf.net/>

Scholarship Connection outside scholarships. <http://scholarships.berkeley.edu/>

Simpson Strong-Tie Scholarship. Up to 50 $1000 awards given annually. For architecture and structural engineering students at participating universities. Juniors and seniors in full-time undergrad programs. www.strongtie.com/scholarships May reapply for an additional scholarship each year.

Women in Architecture Fund. <http://wiafund.org/home.html>

Worldstudio AIGA Scholarships. Benefit minority and economically disadvantaged students who are studying the design/arts disciplines in colleges and universities in the United States. <http://www.worldstudio.org/scholarships/criteria>

STUDY ABROAD FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Danish Institute for Study Abroad (DIS). DIS offers special scholarships for UC students. For the 2011 year, each student can receive a $4000 scholarship per fall and/or spring semester at DIS. Students participating in the 7-week summer program can receive a $1500 scholarship; additional funding is available for the 3-week sessions. Questions can be directed to Professor W. Mike Martin at wmmartin@berkeley.edu.

Financial Aid Office study abroad information. http://students.berkeley.edu/finaid/undergraduates/types_travel.htm

Financial Aid and Scholarships for UC Education Abroad Program. <http://studyabroad.berkeley.edu/Finances/>

Freeman Awards for Study in Asia. Freeman-ASIA accepts applications from U.S. citizens or permanent residents studying at the undergraduate level at a two-year or four-year college or university who demonstrate financial need to study abroad in East or Southeast Asia. A Freeman-ASIA Award provides need-based funding to assist the recipient with the cost of the study abroad program and related expenses, including airfare, basic living costs, local transportation, books, etc.
<http://www.iie.org/en/programs/freeman-asia>

UC Education Abroad Program information on financial aid and payment plans. http://eap.ucop.edu/financial_information/

UC Education Abroad Program information on scholarships. http://eap.ucop.edu/financial_information/scholarships.shtm

For additional resources, see the College of Environmental Design and Architecture sections above, the Off-Campus Resources section below, and the Financial Resources for Undergraduate Study Abroad handout, available on the CED website.
<http://www.ced.berkeley.edu/advising/forms>

If you are aware of additional resources we can add to this handout to share with CED students, please notify the CED Office of Undergraduate Advising.